

In the matter of allowing it to speak with the management through its representatives. This point settled, the balance will be a matter of mutual compromise, it is commonly understood.

Hill's Old Iron Works.

The D. A. R.'s and U. D. C.'s are still busy perfecting the programme in connection with the unveiling of a monument and the dedication of a marker on the site of Hill's Old Iron Works, near Hand's mill. Dr. D. H. Hill, of Raleigh, a great grand son of Col. Wm. Hill, has been selected by the D. A. R.'s as one of the speakers, and has accepted. The U. D. C.'s are not yet prepared to announce the name of the speaker to be selected by them; but will probably make an announcement later. The ceremonies in connection with the occasion are to take place during the latter part of October, the actual day to be decided upon later. The ladies are doing the work, in connection with the matter at their own expense; but of course, will not refuse such voluntary assistance as may be offered in the way of contributions.

Serious Car Shortage is Threatened.—Warning of a serious car shortage unless every effort is made to expedite the movement of equipment has been given by Director General Hines.

Calling on shippers to continue the cooperation which made them so "patriotically helpful" during the war, Mr. Hines said that despite the delivery of more than 900 new cars to the railroads each working day reviving business was making demands which could not be met without obtaining the greatest possible utility from the existing limited facilities. Prominent in the causes making for transportation shortage he mentioned unusually heavy grain and coal movements and construction of the public highways in all parts of the country.

"Receivers of freight can assist by prompt unloading of cars and notice thereof to the carrier, by ordering goods in quantities representing the full safe carrying capacity of cars and disregarding trade units, by ordering from the nearest available source, and by pooling orders so as to secure full car load."

—Columbia State, Saturday: An important statewide conference will be held at the Jefferson Hotel in Columbia next Tuesday, September 23, at noon, to consider the fair value of cottonseed. As the aggregate value of the crop is something over $10,000,000 annually, it is a matter of importance that the farmers should get all that they can out of the crop. At the same time the oil mills expect to pay a price on which they can manufacture at a profit. By request of the committee appointed at a meeting September 4, B. Harris, commissioner, has announced the meeting of next Tuesday and he is especially anxious to have a strong representation of farmers as they were not here for the former meeting as largely as they should have been. The meeting is open to all citizens of buyers and oil mill men. The fluctuations in the price of the products of the seed made it necessary to call another meeting to amend the action taken previously. It is not unlikely that something will come up with reference to the price of meal to farmers. This is a question that made such disturbance last year. The oil mills wish to have a spread that will allow them a safe profit, and the farmers do not want to pay too much margin between the price at which they sell the seed and the price which they pay for meal. All negotiations under the action of the meeting of September 4 are suspended until after the meeting Tuesday.

—The strike of the unionized employees of the United States Steel corporation commenced yesterday after months of parleying. The statement that there had been an agreement to defer the strike until after the national labor conference to be held in Washington, commencing October 6, was incorrect. John A. Fitzpatrick, chairman of the American Federation of Labor for Organizing the Steel Industry, says that no such statement was ever authorized. Judge E. H. Gary, chairman of the steel corporation's board of directors, is managing the steel corporation's end. Judge Gary has given out a statement to the effect that the issue is unionism, whether non-union men may be employed by the steel corporation. Mr. Fitzpatrick says that unionism and open shop do not enter into the matter; that the union has no objection to the employment of non-union men by the steel corporation; that the only issue is so far as it is concerned the refusal of the steel magnates to meet the representatives of unionized labor in conference. While the United States steel corporation is recognized as the main leader in the opposition to Unionism, the strike is to include all unionized steel workers. The United States Steel corporation, has about 240,000 men on its payrolls. The number of men who have gone on strike is not known. The unions declared they have a majority with them, but the corporation denies this. The average annual wage of the employees of the corporation was $750 in 1913, but last year it had risen to $1,950. About 70,000 of the workers own United States Steel stock.

—Diplomatic relations have been broken between Belgium and Holland; in 1839 Holland annexed the southern bank of the Scheldt river and an elongated strip of British Limburg lying between Belgium and Germany. The Belgians have never been reconciled to the loss of this territory and have keenly felt the disadvantage of not having the river bank as a boundary. Negotiations were commenced by Belgium some time ago looking to the revision of the old settlement; but these negotiations have not been working out satisfactorily. Within the past few days they have come to the breaking and now the ambassadors have withdrawn from the Hague and from Brussels. The situation is quite serious and may easily develop into war.

TO ADVERTISERS

All regular contract advertisers in The Enquirer are requested to bring in their changes of copy as early as possible, preferably before Saturday evening at 6 o'clock for Tuesday's issue, and before Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock for Friday's issue. The fact of the increased number of pages, and consequently the double number of forms to be made up for each paper makes it absolutely necessary that copy for changes come in early.

Advertisements not changed before Thursday at noon or Monday at noon must go as they were in the preceding issue, as they cannot be left out after that time.

Short transient advertisements will be accepted up to 5 o'clock of the afternoon of the day previous to publication.

We desire our advertisers to understand that there is nothing arbitrary about these regulations; that to provide for changing of advertisements after the times mentioned is a mechanical impossibility.

Very truly,

L. M. GRIST'S SONS,

REAL FACTS ABOUT YOUR SHOES

Don't get excited about shoe costs. The press notices to the effect that "$25.00 and up" shoes are in sight is largely a myth. There always have been $25.00 shoes, and about one person in 10,000 would pay this price. There always have been $10.00 to $15.00 shoes, and numbers of people would buy these shoes—possibly because they "matched a dress," or for some other equally important reason.

There always have been shoes for dress-up and street wear, retailing from $5.00 to $15.00 for the past ten years. Our dress shoes retailing at $5.00 to $10.00 before the war, now sell at $7.00 to $15.00, showing an advance in price of $2.00 to $5.00 per pair.

We, as leaders in our line, have always carried some of the newest and best shoes for those who want the latest thing in style and, of course, merchandise of this kind costs more than plain staple goods. These shoes interest men and women who like to wear "exclusive" styles and can afford it.

There always have been work shoes at $3.00 to $5.00 for hard wear. There always have been boys' and girls' shoes at similar prices. The shoes of this kind which we sold before the war at $3.00 to $5.00, were sold during the war at from $4.00 to $7.00 and are being sold now at $4.50 to $8.00.

The advance in the price of our shoes in four years averages about $2.00 to $5.00 per pair.

Now, these are the facts about our shoes, and it looks different from the fiction which is being so largely handed around the country about "$25.00 shoes."
